Digital Threads

McAllen – Cristina Nebre - A solo show of new photographic works combined with fashion continues the thread of exhibitions at McA2 Creative Incubator, 1001 S. 16th St., Downtown McAllen. This exhibition brings together a collaboration of fashion and photography from Nebre’s works.

While Cristina furthers her education in sociology, she continues to push boundaries in the arts of photography, fashion, and graphic design. She has exhibited her artistic photography at various places including STC where she won an award for her risqué self-portrait series titled “Antiques and Lingerie”. Cristina is also affiliated with the seamstress collective known as Sew Sisters. Inheriting a sewing machine, she solely learned on her own through trial and error and is now doing fashion shows.

This exhibition was made possible with the support of the McAllen Chamber’s Creative Incubator, which supports the professional development of their in-house resident artists

‘She has an expansive composition of theatrical performance, photography and fashion,’ said Rita Perera, Cultural Arts Coordinator, McAllen Chamber of Commerce.

Digital Threads show will be available for viewing from 5th December until 5th January 2007 from 9am to 5pm, Monday to Friday. A special reception to mark the opening of this exciting exhibition is scheduled for Friday, December 8th 2006 from 7pm to 9pm at McA2 Creative Incubator, 1001 S. 16th St., McAllen, Texas.
