McAllen Chamber offers Free Flower Arranging/Wreath Making Class

McAllen—The McAllen Chamber of Commerce is offering a free flower arranging/wreath making class designed for beginners on Tuesday, November 7, at McA2 Creative Incubator. This event is part of the Cultural Arts & Entertainment Series, a compilation that has been organized to focus on numerous activities that aim to provide an educational awareness relating to the culture and art that surrounds our community.

Come join us at McA2 Creative Incubator and discover the joy of creating unique designs with beautiful fresh flowers and learn basic concepts. Through demonstration and hands-on practice, you will learn the basics of floral design principles. The presenter, Manuel Ruben Cantu, currently owns, Environment by Design in McAllen, Texas.

Cantu an interior designer from McAllen, Texas, creates newfound pieces of art using recyclable materials, such as wood, metal and glass. His skills are not just limited to recyclable materials, but to floral design and landscaping.

So mark your calendar for Tuesday, November 7, 2006, at 7:00 pm at the McA2 Creative Incubator, located at 1001 S. 16th St., McAllen. The class is open to people aged 16 plus and is free. Space is limited so register early. To register for the class or for more information, please contact Rita Perera or Erica Medrano at 956. 687.2787 or visit our website at www.mcallenchamber.com
