Last Music Afterhours Concert for the Season Held this Friday

MCALLEN, TX—Friday, May 16th, the McAllen Chamber of Commerce and the City of McAllen will host the last Music Afterhours Outdoor Concert Series of the season at the McAllen Convention Center Bandstand on the east side of the reflection pool. The show runs from 6:30pm to 9:00pm and features “Before the Story Ended” (acoustic, pop), “Dignan” (indie, rock), and “Physics of Meaning” (indie, folk rock, experimental).

“We’ve had a great year with Music Afterhours and are looking forward to starting up again in October,” said Annabell Cortina, Director of Special Events & Media for the McAllen Chamber of Commerce. “We encourage everyone to join us Friday for the last show of the season; it promises to be a great show for the entire family,” said Cortina.

Music Afterhours will break for the summer; the concerts will resume the first Friday of October. The Music Afterhours Outdoor Concert Series is free and open to the public and will showcase artists from around the Valley. The shows run from 6:30pm to 9:00pm. Although limited seating will be available, everyone is encouraged to bring their blankets and picnic baskets to relax and enjoy the show. The public should be aware that in case of inclement weather, the concert will take place at the McAllen Chamber Creative Incubator located at 1001 16th St in McAllen. For more information, please contact Annabell Cortina at acortina@mcallencvb.com or 956-682-2871.
